

For Fun:

Ask a local hardware store if they will donate some painters' hats for the students to wear while building. Have each child write the word engineer or his/her name on the bill.

Have the students bring in a plain white T-shirt several days before the Grand Finale. Allow them to draw bridges on them. On their BIG DAY have students wear their hats and T-shirts!

